Call Notes (Click on the red links to learn more):

Compliance/Administration

- FINRA 2017 Regulatory and Examination Priorities Letter

High-risk and Recidivist Brokers

- Rep advisors with one or more disclosure on their form U4 will receive increase attention from regulators
- Investment news has an article on requirements to attempt to remove a yes answer on your U4
- Additional scrutiny will be placed on any reps being recruited to join Cambridge that already has a yes answer

Product Suitability and Concentration

- Products with longer lock up periods are receiving increased scrutiny
- Most of these products have an addition document requirements. This is not always enough or does not explain what you are trying to accomplish. Additional rationale can always be included with trade submissions
- Providing this can help all parties involved understand why this transaction is the most appropriate investment for your client

Senior Investors

- Investor protection lies at the heart of FINRA's mission, and protecting senior investors will remain a top priority in 2017. FINRA will assess firms' controls to protect senior investors from fraud, abuse and improper advice
- FINRA in its report "National Senior Investor Initiative" define a senior as investors aged 65 years old or older
