

Protect the Ones You Love

You're a chauffeur, short-order cook, homework maven, dryer of tears ... also known as Mom. It's rewarding and tough, especially if you are your children's one and only. But, have you considered what would happen if you were no longer there to take care of them?

While nothing can replace you, having life insurance means that if something happened to you, your children would be OK financially.

Protect the ones you love with life insurance. Learn more at www.lifehappens.org.
